Fall 2010 Group Classes

Scribble Authors (Grades 1-6)

Sept. 20-Dec. 12th

Building vocabulary, grammar, and an ability to express ideas clearly are stones in a mountain best built over time. Scribble Authors develop their writing skills in a setting that delicately balances great grammar with infectious laughter, riotous adventures with careful detail, scintillating stories with an understanding of organization. Each semester culminates in the creation of a bound book that children write and illustrate themselves.

▶ "The Case of the Missing Miss Terious: A Young Author's Workshop"

Students will have a blast learning critical thinking and writing skills as they delve into the inner workings of the mystery story. Provided with age-appropriate reading lists, students will learn about the various elements that make their favorite stories work. Watch their imagination and vocabulary grow as they embark on their own mystery writing adventure. Students will finish the semester with their own book to take home and share. Cost: $726

Level I: Grades 1-2 • Level II: Grades 3-4 • Level III: Grades 5-6

▶ Comic Conundrums – Volume One

Discussing some of their favorite stories, students will get a taste of some of the many archetypes in storytelling. With fun twists on the typical good guy/bad guy saga, everyone will get to create colorful collections of adventures for their favorite characters. Learn the art of comic book drawing from artists who know! Student work will be published for everyone to share with friends and family. Cost: $726

Level I – Grades 2-3 • Level II – Grades 4-6
